

Monroe Award Nomination Form 2009

Monrovia Businessperson of the Year

Many Monrovia businesses are outstanding contributors to our community. To recognize these businesses and business people, the chamber established a new award in 2001 for businessperson of the year to be presented to an outstanding individual who owns or works at a Monrovia business in recognition of their contributions. This award has been named. "The Monroe Award" in honor of Monrovia's founding family.

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION

- Nominee must own or work at a business located in Monrovia.
- Nominee's contributions to the community of Monrovia must be on a voluntary basis other than job-related responsibilities.

CRITERIA FOR JUDGING

- Contributions to Monrovia specifically (not the region or other communities).
- Contributions to a wide base of Monrovia citizens (as opposed to a select or special group).
- Contributions to the community of Monrovia during the past year; and contributions to the community in previous years.
- Evidence of lasting contributions to the community.
- Evidence of leadership and character attributes.
